semi-final round was quite a surprise to every one.

The former national champion disposed of Miss Marie Wagner of the Hamilton Grange Lawn Tennis Clubin straight sets at 6-1, 6-1. Although it was conceded generally that Mrs. Barger-Wallach had an outside chance of beating the Hamilton Grange girl no one felt that the match would be so one sided. As a matter of fabr it would not have been if Miss Wagner had been playing anything like her game, but she seemed unable to do anything at all.

It so happened that all four of the matches in the fourth round were one sided. Mrs. R. A. Pope won her place in the semi-finals by defeating Miss Carona Winn at 6-1, 6-2. This result, 6-4, 6-2.

REDFIELD TALKS TO STOVE MAKERS

Tired of Word Optimistic, He Says Business Conditions Are Better.

BOOKSELLERS TO DINE

Secretary William C. Redfield of the Department of Commerce deliv-ered an address yesterday at the opening of the forty-fourth annual meet-ing of the National Association of Stove Manufacturers at the Hotel Astor. eral hundred stove manufacturers from various parts of the country attended the meeting, which was an executive session. Mr Badfield talked to the members of the association for fully an hour. When he emerged from the meet-

"I simply talked to them on general business conditions," he said.

"Did you take an optimistic mood in your address?" he was asked. "Good gracious," said the Secretary
"I am tired of hearing that word 'opti-mistle,' I talked common sense." Mr. Redfield then said that in his address he pointed out that there was a steady growth and that business conditions are much better. President James A. Columbia presented an odd lineup, main event and similar trophies for senior members, 50 years of age and in their regular positions. Buncke was over. Three sixteens have been provided at first, Roseff at third. Mannatches at first, Roseff at third, Mernstein at short, Newman, Hann and Beck in the outfield. Eddle Shea pitched. He fanned two men out of the seven that fanned two men out of the seven that faced him in the two innings and was touched up for only one hit. Art Belloff, the Hoboken twirler, singled to right in the second, with one down, but Memory's perfect bunt resulted in a putout through sharp fielding by Shea. Ed-declared the event no contest.

The spectators began to show their disapproval of the hippodrome in the sixth, at which time Clabby had rolled up a clean margin on points. Then he began to miss easy openings and falled to send his punches in with any degree of sfrength. When he had touched Pumpelly, He struck of the head for an open target he would swing clear over and then allow Chips head for an open target he would swing clear over and then allow Chips of the control of the control of the control of the swing clear over and then allow Chips dear over and then allow Chips field.
